Juan Pablo Verduzco Sepulveda

Front-end web developer

pabloverduzcos@gmail.com
+52332-347-9883
linkedin.com/in/pabloverduzco
github.com/pabloverduzco

Profile

Passionate developer with experience in front-end web development dedicated to build exceptional website and web apps that can be accessible to everyone.

Professional experience

Full-stack developer at Luxxon

February 2021 — Present

- Translate business nedeeds into functional frontend and backend code.
- Collaborated with an agile team along with the scrum methodology.
- Project built with TypeScript, Next.js, Firebase and Jest.

Front-end developer at P-Maker

August 2020 — Octuber 2020

- Creation of a content management system and a dashboard.
- Work with modern JavaScript code, React, SCSS and different tools as Webpack, Babel, ESLint, etc.
- Communication and collaboration with different teams.

Education

Front-end web development at Platzi Master

August 2020 — August 2023

Computer engineering at UNITEC

September 2017 — September 2021

Projects

Robot Tracker

Robot Tracker is a prototype of a robot cleaner interface. It is built with React, Node and Jest.

Address

Guadalajara — Mexico

Skills

Programming languages

- HTML
- CSS / SCSS
- JavaScript / TypeScript

Tools and platforms

- Git / GitHub
- Firebase
- Vercel
- Heroku

Libraries and frameworks

- React
- Next.js
- Express
- Jest

Design

- Figma
- Adobe XD

Languages

Spanish — Native

English — B1